

The River Round Up

Volume 9 Number 10 October 2008 $2.00

A note from RBCSS Chair

Eddie Pottie receives a donation from Mitch Cuzner towards the 30th annual festival. Earlier in the day Michel Samson presented a cheque for $200. ECBC also donated $2500.

Our festival was a very successful one due to the hard work of the festival committee and the many volunteers. As you are aware this annual event helps to keep your community center going throughout the remainder of the year and without all your support this would not be possible. I would like to thank all members of the community for their continued support. I would also wish to pass on my many thanks to the NuStar volunteers who came down from Port Hawkesbury to give us a hand in various tasks assigned to them. A financial statement will be posted at the CAP site. Again thanks to everyone who participated in this our 30th Anniversary Festival and we hope that you will continue to support this vital part of our beautiful community. Eddie Pottie

The Princess Pageant

This year's princess pageant was a big success! We were fortunate to have eight very talented participants. The 2008 River Bourgeois Festival Queen-Julia Burke, 1st Runner Up-Haley Sampson, 2nd Runner Up-Leanne Boudreau & Miss Friendship-Meghan Merrick.

I would like to thank all the participants for their hard work. You all did a wonderful job! Sally Burke

Grand Opening

The Opening Night's main feature was a fashion show where we saw former residents of River Bourgeois and beyond reappear in a different gender. The top three chosen by the judges were Geraldine à Walter, whose beard looked very much like Gerry Fougere's. Sam Boudreau from Oban with his bucksaw, resembling Rose Merrick and a surprise visit by Elvis (Annette à Freddie) Presley who gave a lively performance to the delight of Elvis fans. Also on he runway were Charlie à Eli (Monica Stone), Margaret à Dickie (Blair Burke) who was on her way to Hawaii, Fred à Fidel (Sharon Chilvers) with his bucket & shovel, gorgeous Alma à Georgie (George J Landry) visiting from Louisdale. We also saw Joe P Burke from the Southside (AKA Linda à Basil). Tom Thibeau came to visit from Thibeauville looking very much like Edna Casey and Joe Jimmie sent his wife Anne dressed in his work clothes, right out of the woods.

The night opened with the singing of O Canada by the children who were piped on the stage by Edna Casey. Jennifer Mombouquette's dance class of wee ones showed us how to do the Highland fling and also demonstrated a step dance.

Our house musicians were Chelsey Dakai who accompanied the fashionists on the piano and Donna DeWolfe delighted the crowd with some violin tunes. The Children returned on stage to close the show with Old MacDonald and the hostesses Mary Barb (AKA Ann Clow) and Mary Emma (AKA Elaine Burke) were happy to get out of the spotlight because of the heat and bright lights. However a good time was had by all. Special thank you to Edna the piper, the children who provided great entertainment, Fr. MacDow (Fr. Robitaille) and our top ten models (volunteers) who put on quite a show to the delight of the audience. Thank you to our judges and our sponsors East Coast Credit Union & the Royal Bank. Elaine Burke

Trivia Contest

The Festival Trivia Contest was a battle of 20 of the brightest minds in Richmond County. There were 10 questions in each of the following categories: Geography, Sports, River Bourgeois, History & Politics, Entertainment, Science & Nature and Drugs & Health. There were 4 members on each team. The winning team (comprised of April Sampson, Sherri Grimes, Sandra Burke & Hughena Carroll)answered 38 out of 70 questions correctly. A few questions were funny and many answers were hilarious. A good time was had by all and we hope to have more entries in next year's event. The animal with the highest blood pressure was verified to be a giraffe (not Maynard Boyd). Paul (Alex Trebeck) Zinck

Ball Tournament

Well, we just finished the 30th Annual River Bourgeois Slo-Pitch Tournament in memory of my father Edwin Bona with 24 teams booked in on the Sunday before the long weekend and by Friday night I had 4 teams drop out so that left me with 20 teams. We had 8 teams in the Family division, 6 in the A division and 6 in the B division. The weather gave us grief all week but by Saturday it was ideal ball conditions with the exception of very wet ball fields. I was very pleased with the number of teams that joined up for the family division this year and they all had a great time playing ball & having fun. After all that was the main reason Edwin started slo-pitch in the area so everyone regardless of their talent had a chance to play ball.

This year's winner of the Clarissa Bona Memorial Award which is donated by MacBouch Tavern in St Peters went to the Screaming Squirrels over Nevat. I don't remember what the score was and who cares, they all had fun. The MVP was awarded to Garrett Leroux from the Squirrels and the most sportsmanship was awarded to Tiffany Stone of Nevat. A couple of highlights from the family division was the return of the regular teams such as Mom's Brats, The Drippers, Nanny's Angels (in their own minds) & the Committee and by the way I hear that Mark Merrick still can't move, it was only 10 years since he last played ball. One of the new additions this year was Nevat, the team was run by Tiffany Stone & Tracey Baker and in case you were wondering where the name came from, it is named after Tracey's son Taven spelled backwards. Another addition was The Screaming Squirrels run by Heidi Stone and I am not sure I want to know where that name came from ??. But my favorite new addition this year was Annie's Athletics they showed up for every game ready to party and party they did; it was great to see the spirit in their team and in all the family teams and I hope there will be more families out there in the area putting teams in this tournament in the future. The family division would not be complete if I did not mention a very special player who by far is the most experienced player out there ..She is somewhere between the age of 60+ and 70. and that would be my big sister Joan Owens so hats off to her and I hope she keeps on playing.

Moving on to the B division, the final game was won by Ed's Shed a team from Sackville that made their home for the weekend at Ed & Susan Pottie's place. They defeated the Mieken Maniacs from Port Hawkesbury. The A division was won by the defending champs from Arichat, the Isle Madame Dere Devils. They defeated Sydney a team made up of local players (Kin Excel) and players from Sydney. The MVP was won by Michael Diggdon from Arichat & the Edwin Bona Award for most Sportsmanship was won by Billy Boucher.

There was a special event held in the field by George Stone's on Saturday night and that was a boat burning (yes they had a burning permit). It started off with about 15 minutes of fireworks and then George lit the flame and up she went. It was great. It will be tough to top that one next year.

The best part of this whole tournament has nothing to do with playing ball-it has everything to do with gathering of family & friends and just having a great time in our beautiful community of River Bourgeois. The festival is a means for the community to bond together for a weekend with old friends & new and at the same time raise some funds for the Tara Lynne Center and the other facilities. After all who has more fun than people. In closing this was my last year for running the tournament. I have been doing it for 10 years and now it is time for new blood to take over. Of coarse I will be there to help who ever takes the reins next year and for years to come. This Tournament is too special to too many people to let it slip and I will make sure that whoever takes it over follows the same foot steps that my dad started 30 years ago. Well Dis is what I say. Yours truly & always a River Rat. Brian Bona.

Brian-We will miss your organizational skills & your yearly recaps. Thanks.

Card Play

The first festival progressive 45 card play was a great success. Many thanks to all from our community & especially those from our neighboring communities who supported this event either by playing and /or contributing to the great lunch. We would also like to thank our beautiful bar maids for tending to our luncheon needs. The decision was made by top scorers to split the prizes so winners of

1st were: Aurel David, Paul Boudreau, Mary Cosman & Lucille Boudreau; 2nd Arthur Sampson, John Farrow, Judy Farrow, Margaret White, Beatrice Kehoe & Viola Samson and 3rd was won by Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Martell and Christie MacKenzie & partner. Cletus Wedge won the half & half draw of $241. We look forward to being better & bigger next year. Mike Fougere & Donnie Pottie
